

Health and Safety in Workplace Online Short Course Advance Certificate (3 months)

The South African Occupational Health and Safety Act stipulates that all companies should have health and safety measures in place if the number of Employees is equal to 20. However, many organisations don't understand their legal implications or know where to start when it comes to health and safety management in the workplace. For this reason, occupational health and safety (OHS) officers are an indispensable part of any organisation. This Course will equip you with the skills to ensure legal compliance and create a safe, productive working environment for employees
